

p.2/2

I have since met with representatives from the USF Facilities and Physical Plant to discuss the building. They explained new procedures designed to improve building maintenance (elevator and flooding issues, specifically).